Lines in the Lagoon is a fishing tournament planned by and created for youth, in an effort to raise awareness of the decline of the health of the Indian River Lagoon.

Proceeds will go to raise awareness and educate youth about the health of the Indian River Lagoon through the organization's activities. Net proceeds will also be distributed to not-for-profit organizations whose missions align with stewardship of the Indian River Lagoon's natural resources. These include but are not limited to the Ocean Research & Conservation Association (ORCA) and Coastal Conservation Association (CCA). Lines in the Lagoon is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization and all contributions made for this event may be tax deductible as allowed by law.

Distribution does not imply recommendation or endorsement by the School District of Indian River County
